

BGL BNP Paribas reaffirms its support for Luxembourg football

The bank and the Luxembourg Football Federation renew their partnership until 2026

BGL BNP Paribas and the Luxembourg Football Federation (FLF) recently signed an extension to their partnership for the next three seasons.

The contract was signed by Béatrice Belorgey, Chair of the Executive Committee of BGL BNP Paribas and Head of BNP Paribas Group entities in Luxembourg, Yves Nosbusch, member of the Executive Committee of BGL BNP Paribas, Paul Philipp, President of the FLF and Nicolas Schockmel, member of the Board of Directors of the FLF.

Speaking at the signature of the contract, Béatrice Belorgey said: “The worlds of business and football have a lot in common, not least the values they convey and the importance of teamwork, commitment, and the taste for challenge. We are proud to be the main sponsor of the FLF and to support Luxembourg football, one of the most popular sports in Luxembourg.”

Paul Philipp added “We are delighted that BGL BNP Paribas is continuing to actively support Luxembourgish football, which remains one of the country’s most popular sports and continues to grow in popularity, notably among young people.”

The BGL League will begin the new 2023-2024 season in August.

About the Luxembourg Football Federation (FLF)

Founded in 1908, the FLF (www.flf.lu) is Luxembourg’s biggest sporting federation. It currently has 43,810 affiliated members and 110 clubs. It seeks to undertake any activity that could help foster, directly or indirectly, the promotion and development of men’s and women’s football in Luxembourg and is responsible for organising football in Luxembourg.

The FLF is a non-profit organisation managed by a Board of Directors comprising 11 members and is chaired by its President, Paul Philipp. The FLF employs 32 full-time members of staff. It is also a member of FIFA, UEFA and the COSL, and the national team has been competing at official international FIFA and UEFA tournaments since 1934.

Since the 2000/01 season, the under-13s to under-19s teams have attended a football academy at the National Training Centre in Mondcrange. Through meticulous scouting, appropriate guidance, weekly training and international connections, the FLF plays a significant social and educational role.
